ALEXANDRIA, LOUDOUN AND HAMPSHIRE R. R .- The Loudoun Mirror advocates the proposed extension of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire railroad to Georgetown and Washington, by a stem from the main line, "branching off from the main line five or six miles from Alexandria, making only five miles to Washington;" which, it says, "would make Loudoun the suburb of Washington," and which, "in . ddition to shortening the distance for persons travelling eastward, would, at the same time, obviate the changing of ears, the uncertainty of water communication, and the many other annoyances and delays to which they are now subjected."

We hope soon to see active measures instituted for the building of this great road from its present terminus, Leesburg, to the coal-fields of Hampshire county, its original objective point. Its construction would be of incalculable benefit to Winchester, and indeed to all the country through which it would pass. - Winchester Times.

Committees of the Washington and Georgetown City Councils, and other invited guests, will visit Leesburg on Wednesday next, the 23d instant, to be present at the meeting to be held there that day for the purpose of instituting measures to inaugurate the construction of the proposed new branch.

The Georgetown Courier speaking of the phax, Jackson-17. proposed branch of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad to Georgetown says: "We look forward with lively hope to the result of the meeting at Leesburg on Wednesday next; Our city should be willing to subscribe any required amount for this grand undertaking, laden as it is with brightest prospects for the future weal of Georgetown,'

ELECTION TICKETS. - The third section of the Supplement to the original Reconstruction bill, passed March 2, 1867, expressly requires that the votes for or against a Convention shall be written or printed on the ballots for delegates. As does also Gen. Schofield's order No. 65, dated September 12th, 1867, section V. There must be only one ticket used by a voter, and this ticket must contain his vote for or against a Convention, and also his vote for delegates to the Convention.

If any one hands in two tickets, his vote will not be counted.

This is an important matter, and ought to

"TUNERS." -- A correspondent writes: "The efforts of sundry resident U.S. officials to tune the colored element of this city into concord, suggests the above title. From U.S. judges down to revenue collectors, they are exceedingly busy at work, endeavoring to "harmonise," and may be seen at all hours of the day deep in consultation with the colored people. At pight they "speak at meetings. Whether these various "tuners" ears are inharmonious, or their ideas of harmony unlike, they seem to succeed indifferently well only, some undoing the work of others, and unskilful hands occasionally straining a string to a snapping tension. The skill of those who thus itinerate is unquestioned."

EINTRACHT.—The dramatic season of the "Eintracht," opened last Tuesday, at their rooms, in Washington Hall, with the production of "Lorenz." Great improvements were visible as regards the actors, the stage, the hall, and the club rooms, the latter having been greatly enlarged and entirely renovated during the summer months. The Eintracht seems to be in a flourishing condition, and promises good season for dramatic as well as other entainments. Their grand opening ball will be given next Monday. See advertisement.

THE MARKET, this morning, was very well supplied. The Butcher's meats, generally, were of good quality-fresh beef selling at 15 a 20 cts. per lb. Veal, lamb, and pork, without change in prices. Vegetables, also, are without change. Fresh butter is dear-at from 40 to 45 cts. per lb. Eggs 35 cts. per dozen. Our country friends are bringing in young hogs at 12 a 15 cts. per tb. by the quarter. Irish and sweet potatoes $1 per bushel. There was a beautiful display of fall flowers at several of the stands.

STOCK CATTLE. - Mr. Robert Beverly, of Fauquier, has purchased, and is now having transported by railroad from Memphis, stock cattle to the number of one thousand, a portion of which have already arrived by trains on the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad, and been disembarked at Warrenton Junction. These cattle are to be grazed in the blue grass country of Fauquier.

THE MARYLAND FERRY. -The market Wagons on the Maryland shore, opposite this city, were more numerous this morning than for several years past, and their appearance, as seen from the wharves of this city, was an agreeable sight. Next week the wagons can cross the river on the steamer Virginia.

FINE MEAT. - Mr. Gheen had, at his stall, in the market house, entrance from Royal mutton and lamb, that we have seen for a long time. The beef was particularly good.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—There were no cases of a criminal character at the Magistrates offices this morning.

On motion the Chair then appointed the following-one from each of the Magisterial Districts-W. T. Coleman, C. W. Dewitt, G. P. Douglass, Robert Bell and W. A. Rowe, a Committee on Credentials.

The Committee having reported, through their Chairman, Robert Bell, the roll was called, and one absentee only noted-from Freedman's Village.

C. W. DeWitt then moved that the delegates present form that be allowed to cast the whole vote to which the delegation was entitled, which was passed in an amended form so as to read that W. G. Rowe be allowed to cast two votes.

It was then determined to proceed immediately to the selection of a candidate for the State Convention, and that the voting be done

The result on the first calling of the roll was for, John Hawxhurst, 17; Charles Whittlesey, ; Samuel Madden, 5; R. H. Lyles, 1; G. W. Parker, 1; Lewis McKenzie, 1.

John Hawxhurst having received a majority of the whole number of votes, was declared the candidate of the Radical party for the State Convention, and his nomination made unanimous, whereupon, at three o'clock p. m. the Convention adjourned sine die.

SCHOOL EXCURSION.—The students of the Alexandria Academy took advantage of the fine weather of yesterday to pass the day in the country, visiting the "wild man's cave." Base ball and other amusements occupied the attention of the pupils throughout the day, all returning late in the afternoon with empty baskets, nothing having occurred to mar the your infants. We have put up and sold this pleasure of the excursionists.

THE POTOMAC TRANSPORTATION COMPANY. An adjourned meeting of the committee of the People's Potomac Transportation Company was held yesterday at the rooms of William L. Wall, in Washington. After transacting such business as was brought before them, the committee adjourned to meet at the Board of Trade rooms on Monday, 21st instant.

Interesting meetings have been held each night this week in the M. E. Church, South, on Washington street, with a promise

THE DAMAGE. - The damage by the accidental run-off on the Loudoun and Hampshire Railread, near Lee's Switch, which, it was stated, would cost the company six or seven thousand dollars, the engineer of the company estimates at only six or seven hundred dollars, a large difference in favor of the company.

ACCOTING TURNPIKE COMPANY .-- A meet ing of the stockholders of the Alexandria, Mt Vernon and Accotink Turnpike Company was held this morning in the office of S. N.
